THE JAPANESE WIN HOT ENGAGEMENT

Attack Center Column of Russian Army.

The Japanese Soldiers Seem To Have Out Fought the Russians at Every Stage.

SEVERAL THOUSAND KILLED

London, July 19.—A dispatch from General Kuroki's headquarters dated today states that the Russian losses in the fight of Maotien Ling are computed at two thousand.

The Japanese loss will not exceed three hundred. The Japanese infantry demonstrated again its remarkable efficiency in the initiative and showed conclusively that its infantry are better marksmen than Russians. For hours they outfought the enemy and Russians were outgeneraled at every point.

GERMANY PROTESTS.

Berlin, July 19.—The Kaiser has ordered Count Von Buelow to enter a protest against the stoppage of the steamer Prinz Heinrich in the Red Sea by the Russian cruiser Smolenski last week.

RUSSIA STOPS BRITISH SHIP.

Aden, July 19.—The British steamer Persia, from Calcutta to London, was forcibly detained in the Red Sea today by a Russian steamer, the Smolenski. The Smolenski confiscated two bags of Persia mail and then transferred to her mail desk for Japan, the mail taken from the North German Lloyd steamer Prince Heinrich last week.

RUSSIAN SHIPS PASS.

Constantinople, July 19.—The Porte authorized two additional Russian volunteer cruisers to pass through the Dardanelles.

JAPANESE LOSSES WERE TRIFLING.

London, July 19.—The correspondent of the Times at General Kuroki's headquarters says that the Japanese losses during the fighting at Mo Tien Pass on July 17, were trifling.

SUDDEN ONSLAUGHT DROVE IN OUTPOSTS.

London, July 19.—The correspondent at General Kuroki's headquarters, telegraphing under date of July 17, says:

"A Russian force, apparently about 20,000 strong, attacked the front, left and right of the Japanese positions on the Western slope of Mo Tien Pass, at 2 a. m. today, under cover of a dense fog. The sudden onslaught drove in the Japanese posts, but as soon as reinforcements arrived the Japanese gallantly advanced to the attack, and after severe fighting drove off the Russians and reoccupied the position. The Russians retired, their retreat being well covered. The fighting lasted until 3 o'clock in the afternoon, and when I left the scene desultory firing was still proceeding.

BANKER REEVES

POPULAR MAN IS ILL AT DAWSON SPRINGS, KY.

Mr. Robert Reeves, president of the First National bank, is quite ill at Dawson Springs, where he has been sojourning for several days and his brother-in-law, Colonel Ben Weille, accompanied by Dr. J. Q. Taylor, left at noon today to accompany him home on the 6 o'clock train. It is not known how ill Mr. Reeves is, but his many friends will wish him a speedy recovery.

THANKS KENTUCKY DELEGATION.

Louisville, July 19.—Lieutenant Governor Thorne has received a letter from Judge Parker thanking him, Governor Beckham, and the entire Kentucky delegation for support.

Marshal William McCollum, of Kuttawa, is in the city today on business.

STRIKERS STILL PREDICT SUCCESS

No Change Yet in the Situation.

Meat Has Gone Up Several Notches as a Result of the Failure to Settle.

THE UNION LESS CONFIDENT

Chicago, July 19.—The prices of meat again went up several notches today as a consequence of the failure of the striking butchers and packers to agree on terms of settlement of the strike. The packers claim they are getting many new men to work. The unions are less confident, but still predict victory.

NO TROUBLE AT KANSAS CITY.

Kansas City, July 19.—No trouble attended the opening of the packing houses this morning and the situation is unchanged. Thirty-seven expert butchers have arrived from Southwest Missouri country towns.

Chicago, July 19.—Several trains arrived at the stock yards today bearing non-union workers. It is believed that from 4,000 to 6,000 non-unionists are now working in the packing houses. They sleep and eat on the grounds. The offer of five hundred cowboy butchers from Montana, "who can take care of themselves," was declined by the packers.

SITUATION AT ST. PAUL.

St. Paul, July 19.—The striking butchers' committee ordered their pickets back to duty this morning. A picket resisted a policeman who was trying to force men through the lines, and a fight followed. There were no serious results. The business agent of Steep says the officers of the union have lost control of the men. Mayor Lytle of South St. Paul has ordered President Flower, of the Stock Yards Co., out of town charging him with being an agitator. Flower refused to go.

STRIKE MAY GROW.

Chicago, July 19.—The engineers, firemen, steamfitters, coopers and painters employed at the stock yards are authorized to strike and will probably go out if the butchers' strike is not soon settled.

SUDDEN DEATH

Joe Robertson, Aged 14, Dies After a Brief Illness.

Attended His Sisters' Birthday Party Last Night and Was in Usual Health.

Joe, the 14-year-old son of Mr. N. B. Robertson, died this morning at 11 o'clock at the family residence, 435 South Ninth street. He had been an invalid for three years from tuberculosis of the spine, but had not been confined to his bed constantly.

Last night he was able to be up, and attend a party given by his sister at their home, in honor of her 17th birthday. He became ill during the evening, and it was thought that he would die last night, but he rallied and survived until this morning.

He left besides his parents, three sisters, Misses Ethel, Catherine and Mary Pearl Robertson and one brother, Kit Robertson, all of the city.

The funeral will take place tomorrow morning at St. Francis de Sales Catholic church, and the burial will be at Mt. Carmel.

SERIOUS TROUBLE FEARED IN EUROPE

Over the Action of Russia in Seizing Ships.

The Malacia Manned By Russians—England To Make a Demonstration.

ARE TO USE 18 WARSHIPS

London, July 19.—A well defined feeling in all quarters that the seizure of British and German steamers by the Russian volunteer cruisers Smolenski and St. Petersburg, marks the first European complications resultant upon the Russo-Japan war.

How extensive this may prove, time and future events alone can determine. At present the feeling of uneasiness has become one of fear, and the end of the matter will not be reached before England and perhaps Germany, is forced to take stringent measures to bring Russia to terms in the matter.

MANNED BY RUSSIANS.

Suez, July 19.—The Pennsylvania and Ohio steamship, Malacia, seized in the Red sea by the Russian Volunteer cruiser Petersburg last week, has arrived here flying the Russian flag, commanded by Russian officers and manned by a Russian crew. The company's agent was refused admittance aboard the vessel.

ENGLAND TO MAKE A BLUFF.

Berlin, July 19.—England has informed Germany of the dispatch of an English fleet of eighteen warships to Alexandria, with the intention of checking the Russian illegalities in the Red sea. It is expected that this demonstration will cause the Russians to subside meekly.

THROUGH MISTAKE

A LADY TOOK SUGAR OF LEAD.

Last night shortly after 8 o'clock Mrs. Ernest Ross, who lives between Fourth and Fifth streets on Jackson, took a teaspoonful of sugar of lead, thinking it was cream of tartar, and came near dying before an antidote could be administered.

She had bought some salts and other medicine, along with the sugar of lead, and discovered her mistake soon after she had swallowed the dose.

Her husband ran to a nearby drug store and procured some epsom salts and lemonade, the antidote, and soon had Mrs. Ross out of danger. Dr. D. T. Stuart was later called but found the patient completely out of danger.

INSTANTLY KILLED

St. Mary's, W. Va., July 19.—Byron and Ross Clutter, aged 22 and 14 years respectively, were struck by lightning and instantly killed during a severe storm this afternoon. They were at work in the hay field on the farm near by. LARGEST CROWD IN HISTORY OF ELKS Mammoth Reunion Began Today at Cincinnati.

The Happy Herds Extended A Royal Welcome to the Queen City.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS TODAY

Cincinnati, July 19.—The attendance of Elks at the national convention is the largest in the history of the order. At the opening session this morning the welcome addresses were delivered by Governor Herrick, Mayor Fleishmann and August Hermann.

The response was by Grand Exalted Ruler Fanning. There was a fine musical program. Late this afternoon the grand lodge will elect officers.

Three steamers have been chartered for excursions on the Ohio river, from which the fireworks will be viewed in the evening on both the Ohio and the Kentucky banks of the river.

The parade will occur Wednesday. While the delegates are engaged on their sessions, many entertainments have been arranged for other visiting Elks and their ladies.

The business session of the grand lodge will be important, as several matters of consequence to the order are to be decided. The most interesting contests are for the positions of grand exalted ruler and grand secretary. For grand exalted ruler there are two candidates, William J. O'Brien of Baltimore, and Samuel H. Needs of Cleveland. For grand secretary there are several candidates.

Charles Steger of Toledo, Ohio; Fred C. Robinson, of Dubuque, Ia.; Archie Burke, of Richmond, Va., and David L. Watson of Terre Haute, Ind., are among those in the field since George A. Reynolds of Saginaw has announced that he will not be a candidate for re-election. The city is elaborately decorated and the local arrangements are on the most extensive scale ever known for any occasion here.

I. C. TRAIN

Four Coaches Turn Bottom Side Up.

No One Was Killed But Several Were Hurt.

Bogue Chitto, Miss., July 19.—A most remarkable railroad accident occurred at Cold Springs, two miles north of here, about 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Five coaches of Illinois Central southbound fast train No. 1, due in New Orleans at 10:25, were derailed, four of them turning bottom upwards down a steep embankment.

One coach was left crosswise the double track with a broken rail driven endwise through the floor and roof. The cause of the wreck is not known. Engineer Jarvis states that the track was apparently in good condition, and his train, some five hours late, was being pulled at a 70 mile clip. From indications the rails buckled between the front and hind trucks of the library car, which left the trucks of the next car between the rails. While the wreck was one calculated to do much damage there was no one killed. Conductor J. J. Jewett of New Orleans had his right arm broken above the elbow, and two Italian children were severely injured, one internally and no doubt fatally. Eight other passengers were attended by the physicians for slight wounds and bruises. Conductor Jewett and the two children were carried to New Orleans this afternoon.

Dr. J. S. Thoutman and family went to Cairo this morning. Dr. Troutman was called there on business.

A NEW RAILROAD FOR MADISONVILLE

Line to the Coal Fields Expected to be Built.

Laundry at Princeton Is Burned—Something Is Doing at Hopkinsville, as Usual.

THE KISSING BUG APPEARS

Madisonville, Ky., July 19.—That Madisonville is to have a second railroad is now almost assured. It was intimated a short time ago that Eastern capitalists who had coal interests in Muhlenberg county which were located on no railroad proposed to build a line from Central City to this place to pass through their holdings in Muhlenberg county. Following this, a survey has been made from Central City, not only to this city, but on through here to Dawson Springs, a distance of more than twenty miles beyond here, where it is proposed to connect with the Illinois Central at that place. This road, connecting with the Illinois Central at both ends, will make it a great feeder for the Illinois Central, as it will not only pass directly through the rich mineral and timber lands of Muhlenberg county, but will penetrate the rich coal field of Hopkins county. This will make a strong competitor for the Louisville and Nashville railroad, which is the only line passing through the Hopkins county field.

SHOOTING AT A DANCE.

Hopkinsville, Ky., July 19.—At a bran dance near Fruit Hill Bud Stewart and Sylvester Williams became involved in a difficulty and the latter was shot in the head. Stewart escaped.

LAUNDRY BURNED.

Princeton, Ky., July 19.—The new City laundry was practically destroyed by fire yesterday afternoon. The loss is about $2,000, with $800 insurance.

FORMER KENTUCKIAN DIES.

Hopkinsville, Ky., July 19.—A telegram was received here announcing the death of E. Grey Lewis at Temple, Tex. Mr. Lewis was an old Hopkinsville boy who went to the Lone Star State about 15 years ago. His sister, Mrs. Gabe L. Campbell, and other relatives live here. He was about 42 years of age and leaves a family.

OWENSBORO'S KISSING BUG.

Owensboro, Ky., July 19.—The first victim of the kissing bug for several years is Dillard Head, a mail contractor, who was bitten on the lip. His lip is swollen until the lower part of his face has no shape, and he is suffering greatly, though somewhat improved.

SHOOTING OVER CRAP GAME.

Hopkinsville, Ky., July 19.—Cleveland Cowherd was shot and mortally wounded by Lee Sugg, near Bolivar. The trouble arose over a crap game. Sugg escaped. Both are colored.

CRUSHED BY TRAIN.

Hopkinsville, Ky., July 19.—Charles Daniel, colored, was run over by a train at Oasky last night and both legs were crushed. He will probably die.

THE LEGISLATURE

MAY BE CALLED TO MEET IN SPECIAL SESSION SOON.

Frankfort, Ky., July 19.—The question of changing the state capitol site is now being discussed. It is understood the architect thinks the present grounds are too small, and will recommend, or has recommended, another and larger site, and to make any change it is necessary to call the legislature together to change the law.

SEVERAL POLICE SUED FOR DAMAGES

Crowd Arrested on Livingston Point File Suits Today.

Ask For Five Thousand Dollars From Chief Collins and Other Officers.

WHAT THEIR ALLEGATIONS ARE

Attorney J. M. Worten this morning filed four suits in circuit court against policemen and their bondsmen for sums aggregating $20,000, for alleged illegal arrest.

The plaintiffs in the suits are Alice, Maggie and Mary Ross and J. R. Brigman, and the defendants are Chief of Police James Collins, Captain Joe Woods, Lieutenant Frank Harlan, Officers J. W. Clark, E. H. Cross and James Brennan, and the amounts are for $5,000 each.

The petitioners claim that the officers, exclusive of Chief Collins, who did not go in person, went to Livingston Point on the morning of June 23, 1904, and aroused the family compelled them to come to the city with them, taking also the women's trunks, and without giving them any satisfaction as to why they were arrested.

The petition alleges further that after they were brought here, they were released and that the police never informed them why they were arrested, and that the trunks were opened in the police station and the contents brought to view and scattered about.

Brigman alleges that his trunk was left on the Point and that he agreed to open it for the police, who at first refused, but on returning took the lock off and inspected the contents.

The petition alleges that no warrant was read and that the arrest was illegal; that it put the plaintiffs to much inconvenience, worry and embarrassment, and they consequently ask and pray damages for $5,000 each.

The police did not care to be interviewed about the matter today, but it is understood will be able to show that they acted in good faith, and have only the welfare of the public at heart in making arrests, and never arrest anyone except when they think they have good grounds.

It is understood that in this case the police made the arrests on suspicion, some burglaries having been committed at Hamlettsburg, Ill., and other places above here, just previous.

HEARST MAN

HAS BOLTED THE DEMOCRATIC TICKET—A HOT STATEMENT.

Des Moines, Ia., July 19.—A. W. Maxwell, who managed the Hearst campaign in Iowa and has been generally recognized as the head of the Hearst faction in the state, in a signed statement issued, repudiates the action of the Democratic National Convention in St. Louis and declares his intention of bolting the ticket.

Mr. Maxwell tenders his resignation as a member of the Democratic State Committee and relinquishes all claims upon the chairmanship of that body, to which he was elected by the Democratic convention, which has since been in dispute.

Mr. Maxwell, in his statement, says that he can countenance neither the candidate nor the platform of the St. Louis convention. He says: "The party has been bound, gagged and delivered bodily into the control of the very interests I have been fighting for the past eight years."

FOLD LEADS

HIS FRIENDS IN CONTROL OF MISSOURI CONVENTION.

Jefferson City, Mo., July 19.—The Democratic convention met at noon and Circuit Attorney Folk be nominated governor. The convention is in control of his friends, mostly farmers.

The Indians, by dogged determination, took the second game from the Lunatics at Wallace park yesterday by a score of 3 to 2. The game was exciting throughout, and was won on errors, no earned runs being made.

Paducah began the run getting in the sixth inning when Sherman got a walk. Land bunted and Catcher Moore threw wild, Land going to second on the throw. Violet hit to third base and Sherman in trying to score was caught between home and third and retired. Violet going to second. McKenna struck out and Gerard hit to Brady who threw wild, Land scoring on the throw. Gerard in attempting to steal second invited a throw from home which went wild. Center Fielder Meander fielded the throw and threw wild to third and both base runners scored. Werneck flew out to short retiring the side. Three scores.

Hopkinsville failed to tally until the eighth inning when Peipho struck out. Marre followed with a pass to first. Moore went out from second to first and Morris knocked a high one to right field which McKenna let get away from him, Marre scoring. Meander went out from third to first, retiring the side with one run. The following inning the visitors tallied again on errors. Pettifer was first up and got to first on Potts' miff of grounder. Brady bunted to Brady who threw wild to first. Alexander hit to Potts who threw Brady out at second. Bomar singled to right field and was followed by Peipho who dupliated Bomar's trick, scoring Pettifer. It looked like the visitors might tie the score and all were eager for the end to come. Marre came to the bat and smashed a high one to McKenna who gripped it hard to prevent its escape. This ended the game, tallying another victory for the Indians. The summary follows:

CAIRO WON AGAIN.

Cairo, Ill., July 19—Yesterday's game was enlivened by Pitcher Doll assaulting Umpire Shuster. Both men were arrested.

Cairo, 5 10 4—Wilder and Harvey.
Clarksville, 4 9 2—Doll, Hurley and Pettit.

THE HENS LOSE.

Vincennes, Ind., July 19—The locals won by a scratch yesterday.
Vincennes, 4 5 5—Van Meter and Lemon.
Henderson, 3 7 3—Ryan and Downing.

BASEBALL NOTES.

George Brady has pitched excellent ball since he has gotten in shape, but has played in bad luck in regard to shut out games. Brady would have pitched several shut out games but for errors, and errors made on easy balls too. Yesterday McKenna's error cost the two runs made by the visitors and on other occasions Brady had been thwarted from a well deserved "shutout" by such ill luck.

Barlow has been playing a star game in centerfield the last two days. Everything which goes to centerfield is well cared for.

Gerard's wing from third this season is far steadier than last season and a throw from third is rarely ever wild. The little baseman is doing excellent work this season.

Use Shoffner's Sure Cure

The Great Tonic and Blood Purifier—Cures Indigestion, Dyspepsia and Catarrh.

It is a trite and true saying that the "blood is the life." Now where does the blood come from? Everybody knows, or should know, that it comes from the nutritive elements extracted by the stomach from the food we eat. If the digestive organs do not perform their functions by reason of disease germs, there is no nutrition extracted, and the food might better be thrown in the dump to decay and breed germs in the open air than to remain in the stomach and become a rotten, putrid mass, as it naturally does if there is no digestion. No disease germ can live and find lodgment in a human body that uses the Shoffner's Sure Cure. Price $1.00.

What People Say of the Shoffner's Sure Cure.

PADUCAH, Ky., March 5, 1903.

To Whom It May Concern:
This is to certify that I was a sufferer with indigestion for five years and could get no relief until I bought one bottle of Shoffner's Sure Cure, and it helped me so much that I took six bottles and it has cured me sound and well, thanks to the Shoffner's Sure Cure.

MRS. JOHN SMEDLEY, 806 S. Third St.

This is to certify that I believe the Shoffner's Sure Cure saved my life. I was not able to sit up in bed when I began taking the remedy. I had such a severe cough I thought I had consumption. Physicians had given me up to die. After taking one bottle I was able to sit up some. After using five bottles I was fully restored to health. I cannot say enough in favor of this wonderful remedy for indigestion.

MRS. SUE GRAHAM, Moscow, Ky.

If after using one bottle according to directions you are not benefited, your money will be refunded.

HEALTH AND VITALITY

A Baby's Birth

is very much like the blossoming of a flower. Its beauty and perfection depends entirely upon the care bestowed upon its parent. Expectant mothers should have the tenderest care. WOULD BE SUICIDE DIED LAST NIGHT

Charles Short, After Improving, Suddenly Expires.

A Note Was Found In His Pocket Saying He Was "Going to Join the Baby."

HE WAS DETERMINED TO DIE

Charles Short, who took laudanum and arsenic yesterday afternoon and was found unconscious near Second and Kentucky streets, died at 1 o'clock this morning. After being found and pumped out, he was taken to his home at 222 Adams street, where he improved rapidly.

His wife found in his bank book in his coat pocket a note saying that he was "going to join the baby," who died last Thursday morning. Mrs. Short declined to give out the remainder of the contents of the note.

Yesterday by 6 p. m. Short seemed to be entirely out of danger. He had recovered consciousness, and was lying out in the yard in the grass laughing and talking with members of the family, and seemed to be in better spirits. He still said, however, that he intended to take something and kill himself as soon as he had another chance.

About 8 o'clock he became suddenly worse, and all efforts to get a doctor were fruitless. Several were telephoned, according to the family, but none would come. His condition grew steadily worse until shortly after 1 o'clock, when he breathed his last.

He had been despondent ever since the baby died last week, and many believed he was temporarily deranged.

It is not known whether he took any more poison last night or not, but is believed by the family that the immediate cause of death was heart disease, of which he was an occasional sufferer. He had no doctor from the time he became so much worse about 8 o'clock last night, until he died, and it is consequently not known what caused his death.

The deceased was about 30 years of age, and was born in Petoka, Ind. He was a fish merchant, and had lived in Paducah for a number of years, being a respected man, and a member of the Odd Fellows fraternity.

The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock, burial at Oak Grove.

Besides a wife, Mr. Short left a father, two brothers, Mr. William Short, of this city, and Mr. Louis Short, of Missouri, and two sisters, Mrs. Lillian Bradymore and Mrs. Etta Roder, of Arkansas.

Acting Coroner, Justice Jesse Young, made an investigation and decided that there was no necessity for holding an inquest.

A CONTINUAL STRAIN.

Many men and women are constantly subjected to what they commonly term "a continual strain" because of some financial or family trouble. It wears and distresses them both mentally and physically, affecting their nerves badly and bringing on liver and kidney ailments, with the attendant evils of constipation, loss of appetite, sleeplessness, low vitality and despondency. They cannot, as a rule, get rid of this "continual strain," but they can remedy its health destroying effects by taking frequent doses of Green's August Flower. It tones up the liver, stimulates the kidneys, insures healthy bodily functions, gives vim and spirit to one's whole being, and eventually dispels the physical or mental distress caused by that "continual strain." Trial bottle of August Flower, 25c; regular size, 75c. At DuBois, Kolb & Co.

ECZEMA ON LITTLE GIRL

Sleepless Nights for Mother and Awful Suffering of Child.

CURED BY CUTICURA

Had Given up All Hope of Ever Making Any Cure.

"My little girl has been suffering for two years or more from eczema, and during that time I could not get a night's sleep, as her ailment was very severe.

"I had tried so many remedies and spent much money, deriving no benefit, I had absolutely given up all hope of making any cure. But as a last resort I was persuaded to try a set of the Cuticura remedies, and to my great delight a marked change was manifested from the first application. I gave the child a bath with Cuticura Soap, using a soft piece of muslin cloth. This I did twice a day, each time following with the Cuticura Ointment, and at the same time gave the Resolvent, according to directions. One box of the Ointment and two bottles of the Resolvent, together with the Soap, effected a permanent cure. I submit this for publication if you desire, hoping it will add to your success and assist so many thousands of sufferers in curing themselves." Mrs. I. B. JONES, ABBINGTON, IND. T.

The first step in the treatment of the chronic forms is to remove the scales and crusts and soften the skin, by warm baths with Cuticura Soap. The feet will require frequently a thorough soaking in order to penetrate the thickened skin and crusts with which these parts are often covered. Dry carefully, and apply Cuticura Ointment, lightly at first, and where advisable spread it on pieces of soft cloth and bind in place. Take the Resolvent, pills, or liquid, in medium doses. Do not use cold water in bathing, and avoid cold, raw winds.

Sold throughout the world. Cuticura Resolvent, 50c. (in form of Chocolate Coated Pills, 25c. per box of 40). Ointment, 25c. Soap, 25c. Depot: London, 27, Chancery Lane, E.C. 4. GOEBELISM AND THE GOVERN-MENTSHIP.

Judge Lewis McQuown's article defending the Democratic outrages against Caleb Powers fails to reveal the acumen and understanding to be expected from such high authority.
He says, for instance:

"The election law which bore Goebel's name, although it could, in no way, legitimately affect the contests, was seized on by the partisan press in the country to create a prejudice against him and his cause."

We take this to mean that because contests for governor come before the legislature, Judge McQuown wants us to believe that the Goebel law could not affect such contests. This will deceive no one familiar with the workings of the Goebel law. The legislature that passed the Goebel law elected the three state election commissioners, and the three state election commissioners arbitrarily appointed the county commissioners, and the county commissioners named the precinct officers, thus giving the Democrats a complete chain of absolute power in issuing certificates of election and deciding contests. These commissioners and election officers could be fair, honest men, or rascals, whichever the commissioners wanted them to be. But whichever they were, every contest for an office,—city, county, district or state, had to come before one or the other of the boards until the offices of governor and lieutenant governor were reached. Contests for these offices were to be decided by the legislature, but who the members of the legislature were when it convened depended solely on the election commissioners who issued the certificates of election.

The contest for governor and lieutenant governor therefore depended on the legislature, but the complexion of the legislature at its organization depended on the election commissioners appointed under the Goebel law.
Contests for seats in the legislature came before the legislature, but who decided such contests? The legislature itself—those members who held certificates of election obtained from Goebel election commissioners, two out of every three of whom were Democrats appointed on the recommendation of, and by, Goebel men. Goebel men secured certificates of election to the legislature from Goebel commissioners, Goebel men voted on contests for seats in the legislature and seated Goebel men, and then the Goebel legislature seated Goebel himself.

The Goebel law was only a measure to give the Democrats complete control of the state, and it did it from governor down. It left nothing to chance. It allowed men in the legislature to throw out the vote of Jefferson county when it was by this very vote that they held seats. It enabled them to say that the vote should not be counted because of "fraud and intimidation," when it was the very same vote by which they claimed title to the seat in the assembly they were then occupying, and of which they were abusing the prerogatives to the extent of overthrowing the will of over 100,000 voters in Kentucky.
The people of Kentucky know too much about the Goebel law to be fooled by such statements as made by Judge McQuown.

The Louisville Herald took the hide off the Courier-Journal about that McQuown defense of Kentucky Democracy in a way to provoke a quick and awful howl. The Republicans of Kentucky want the murderer of Senator Goebel punished, but they don't approve of the effort to punish men they believe to be innocent. The Democrats claim that certain men are guilty, and rely on the perjured testimony of their own paid witnesses, and the bought "confession" of Henry Youtsey, a man who has told a variety of lies about the case and sworn to all of them; one of the first victims of the Democratic conspiracy to "hang Taylor and damn the Republican Party in Kentucky," who saw there was a determination to hang the accused whether guilty or innocent, and who accepted life imprisonment as preferable to death on the gallows.

He has since, it is believed, made his "confession" with a hope of future pardon as his reward. He is a self-confessed perjurer, and yet his "confession" is cited as a proof of Caleb Powers' guilt. The Democratic claim that a Republican court of appeals reversed two of the cases because of technical errors, though admitting the sufficiency of the evidence, is misleading. Whether or not the evidence was sufficient to convince the Democratic juries "beyond a reasonable doubt" was a matter of intelligence and conscience on part of the jury, and the court of appeals could not decide whether or not the evidence was manufactured and perjured. So far as the court of appeals was concerned it was evidence, no matter how much it cost the commonwealth with its $100,- 000 corruption fund, to get it. It was admittedly sufficient to convince Democratic juries, but not enough to convince fair minded men.

If city officials would take steps to keep the city clean, the taxpayers would pay their annual assessment with a great deal more equanimity.
The gutters run filth, pools of stagnant water stand in many places, and dead rats, cats, chickens and other animals in the middle of the street are not uncommon. Unfortunately the people seem to confine their feelings to talk. A few indignation meetings might help some.

Good crops may not be due to the Republican administration, but the ability to dispose of them after they are raised is. If times were not prosperous, people would have no money with which to buy, and crops would largely go to waste. The intelligent farmer does not credit large crops to

This afternoon Umpire Shuster had occasion to put a Clarksville player out of the game. To this Pitcher Doll took exceptions and went after Shuster. They mixed and both bear marks to prove it. Doll has a swollen and cut lip, while Shuster has a black eye.

The game then proceeded with no further trouble.

Doll and the other player were sent off the grounds.—Cairo Citizen.

NEW ORDINANCE
TO BE OFFEREDCouncilman Taylor to Go After Tax Dodgers.Solicitor Puryear Now Back Tax Collector—No Brick For Fourth Street Yet.

OTHER CITY NEWS OF INTEREST

Councilman Young Taylor is to introduce in the council shortly an ordinance enabling the city to collect taxes on property that has not been properly assessed. It will authorize the city to get the proper amount of taxes on property that has been assessed at one figure and then sold for a great deal more money. In other words, if a property owner lists his property at $5,000 and sells out for $10,000 or $12,000, or burns out and collects insurance on $10,000 or $12,- 000 worth of property, the city will have a right to exact of him taxes on that amount.

Councilman Taylor states that if he can't have such a law passed by the council he will have it done in the legislature at its next session.

The present back tax collector, according to Mayor Yeiser, is City Solicitor Ed Puryear, who becomes back tax collector by virtue of his office.
Back Tax Collector Patterson resigned last night.

The track brick for completing Fourth street have not yet been received, and the company was today telegraphed by the board of public works to see if something can't be done towards getting the material.

The storm water sewerage for Fourth street has been started near Fourth and Broadway and will be completed in a short time, after which the new pavements will be laid.

City officials do not appear to take kindly to the proposition of the Messrs. Terrell to dedicate ground for streets in the West end for a money consideration. It is claimed that streets in that locality will help no one except the property owners to enhance the value of their property and to pay $1900 for opening two streets not needed at a cost of $8 800 is out of the question.

It is understood that the long end charges against City Weigher Hessel-ton, for alleged incompetency, will be preferred by the mayor Thursday night, although it is not certain Mayor Yeiser said this morning that it was a well known fact that he had never been able to make any of his charges stick before the council. He is said to stand a good chance to break the record in this case; however.

The petition asking the board of public works to resign has vanished.
It was drawn up and was being signed when the promoters were bluffed off.
The information relative to the petition published in The Sun several days ago came from the city officials themselves, and was correct. Those behind it were given to understand that the petition would be ignored, and gave up the idea.

SEACOAST PLANT MAY BE MOVED AWAY

One Report is That it is Going to Salem, Ky.

Ohio Capitalists Are Due Here Tomorrow to Inspect the Plant.

THE CITY TAKES ACTION

It is reported that the Seacoast Mineral Company, the towering white building on the South Side, that is the most conspicuous part of Paducah from steamboats, is to be moved away.

Councilman Young Taylor says that one of his men who saw workmen moving machinery out of the company's plant in installments, and asked what was being done with it, was told that the plant was being moved to Salem, Livingston county.

Councilman Taylor last night brought up the matter of making the company pay taxes before it gets out of town.

The plant was exempt from taxation for five years as an inducement to its location and operation, and has never run. It has been tied up from some cause or another since it was built.

Mr. L. C. Garrett, of New York, the manager, who has been away, has just returned and it is understood has secured more funds, and may start it up about October 1st.

One report, however, is that Cleveland, Ohio, capitalists will be here tomorrow to look over the plant, and if they are satisfied with it, will buy it and move it away from Paducah.

One thing seems certain, however, and that is that the city is determined to make the concern pay taxes or operate, one of the two.

It is likely that something definite will be known when the city solicitor calls on the manager.

SICK DOCTORS

PROPER FOOD PUT HIM RIGHT.

The food experience of a physician in his own case when worn and weak from sickness and when needing nourishment the worst way is valuable:

"An attack of grip, so severe it came near making an end of me left my stomach in such condition I could not retain any ordinary food. I knew of course that I must have food nourishment or I could never recover.

"I began to take four teaspoonfuls of Grape-Nuts and cream three times a day and for 2 weeks this was almost my only food; it tasted so delicious that I enjoyed it immensely and my stomach handled it perfectly from the first mouthful. It was so nourishing I was quickly built back to normal health and strength.

"At the present time I am preparing a paper for 2 medical journals in which I mention my own case and speak particularly of Grape-Nuts, great value as food to sustain life during serious attacks in which the stomach is so deranged it cannot digest and assimilate other foods.

"I am convinced that Grape-Nuts more widely used by physicians will save many lives that are otherwise lost from lack of nourishment." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

Absolutely the most perfect food in the world. Trial of Grape-Nuts 10 days proves.

There's a reason. Look in pkg. for the little book "The Road to Well-being."

The Carnation Industry.

The carnation industry has risen to considerable importance during the past ten years, says Town and Country. As 2,500,000 of young carnation plants are sold each year and the florists produce an equal production of young carnation plants approximately 5,000,000 per annum. These plants are grown under glass during the winter time for cut flower purposes, producing an annual average of more than 100,000,000 blooms. What becomes of this enormous number of flowers is somewhat of a mystery.

Are You a Lychnobite?

A day worker met some morning newspaper men, all of them being slightly "under the influence." In the conversation that ensued the day man said: "You lychnobites ought to go way back and sit down."

The objects of the epithet were much offended at its application to them, but were mollified when they found that the dictionary defines "lychnobite" as "one who works at night and sleeps by day."

This reminds one of the story of Daniel O'Connell, who vanquished a Billingsgate fishwoman by calling her a right-angled hypothenuse.—Typographical Journal.

Inspiration.

"The Stickit Minister" was begun late one evening, and the bulk of it was written in less than a week. Then, as the author himself said afterward, he "gnominiously lost hold." A Number of Improvement Ordinances Passed.

The Police Officers Are to Get a Week's Vacation — Saloon Licenses Issued.

OTHER BUSINESS TRANSCIED

The council met last night with all members present except Councilman Gilson. All bills and salaries were allowed.

First passage was given the ordinance requiring new water and gas connections and storm water sewers on Kentucky Avenue from First to Ninth street.

First passage was given the ordinance imposing a fine of from $10 to $25 for running sloop into storm water sewers.

Final adoption was given the ordinance providing for storm water sewers, and improvements by paving, to Broadway from Fifth to Ninth street.

The resolution to give each policeman a one week's vacation a year, with full pay, was adopted.

Prayers of James Matchen and Mr. Hill of overassessments, were referred.

Back Tax Collector W. H. Patterson presented his resignation which was accepted.

The ordinance establishing a railroad gate at Twelfth and Norton was ordered repealed, the location being changed to Eleventh and Norton.

A statement showing the Western Union has heretofore paid annually $81 pole license, was filed for use in the effort to collect taxes now claimed.

A proposition from R. G. and E. O. Terrell to sell the city two rights of way through property to open Nineteenth and Twenty-first streets beyond Fountain park, was filed. The gentlemen offer the rights of way for $1,700 each street.

A request to open Madison street out to property owned by E. C. Terrell was referred.

The monthly report of Fire Chief Woods was read and filed.

The following saloon licenses were granted: Paducah Distilling company at 103 South Second; William Greek at 106 Kentucky Avenue; Joe Gourieux at Third and Washington; Overstreet & Howell at Seventh and Trimble; E. T. McKinney at 1038 Broadway; W. H. Schroeder at 825 South Third; L. A. Lagomarsino at Second and Broadway; Reynolds & Reynolds at Ninth and Washington, H. T. Hensig was granted a quart liquor license at Mill and Bridge street.

On account of a controversy, the matter of transferring Charles Doerflinger's liquor license to Murray & Quarles was referred to the city solicitor.

The matter of allowing $20 monthly to employ a nurse at the city hospital, was referred.

The matter of removing the end gates from street cars was referred. Councilman Young Taylor thinks the gates are nuisance to the public.

A committee was instructed to confer with the street car people to see if a transfer system can not be immediately inaugurated. It should have been done July 1.

The matter of curtailing the liquor license of Schulte at 11 and Tennessee street was not voted on. The residents objected, claiming notices were not posted properly.

The city solicitor was ordered to take steps to collect taxes from the Seacoast Mineral Company which is preparing to move from Paducah.

The company was to be exempted from taxation if run continuously, but it has failed to do this. Similar action was taken in regard to the Kentucky Iron Company at Third and Norton streets.

The telephone and telegraph companies were ordered to move all poles five feet from fire plugs to enable the free passage of the wrench used to turn on water. If within five days the poles are not removed, Chief Woods was empowered to chop enough out of sides of the poles to enable free passage of the wrench.

On motion the board adjourned.

The Blazed Trail

By STEWART EDWARD WHITE

Copyright, 1902, by Stewart Edward White

When the snows are deep and snow-shoes not the property of every man who cares to journey, the old fashioned "pole trail" comes into use. It is merely a series of horses built of timber, across which thick Norway logs are laid about four feet from the ground to form a continuous pathway. In summer it resembles nothing so much as a thick one rail fence of considerable height, around which a fringe of light brush has grown.

Thorpe reached the fringe of bushes and was about to dodge under the fence when he saw her. So he stopped short, concealed by the leaves and the timber horse.

She stood on a knoll in the middle of a grove of monster pines. There was something of the cathedral in the spot. The girl stood tall and straight among the tall, straight pines like a figure on an ancient tapestry. She was doing nothing—just standing there—but the awe of the forest was in her wide, clear eyes.

In a moment she stirred slightly and turned. Drawing herself to her full height, she extended her hands over her head, palm outward, and with an indescribably graceful gesture bowed a ceremonious adieu to the solemn trees. Then, with a little laugh, she moved away in the direction of the river.

At once Thorpe proved a great need of seeing her again. In his present mood there was nothing of the awe-stricken peace he had experienced after the moonlight adventure. He wanted the sight of her as he had never wanted anything before. The strong man desired it. And finding it impossible he raged inwardly and tore the tranquillity of his heart.

So it happened that he ate hardly at all that day and slept ill and discovered the greatest difficulty in preserving the outward semblance of ease which the presence of Tim Shearer and the Fighting Forty demanded.

And next day he saw her again, and the next, because the need of his heart demanded it and because, simply enough, she came every afternoon to the clump of pines by the old pole trail. But now curiosity awoke and a desire for something more. He must speak to her, touch her hand, look into her eyes. He resolved to approach her, and the mere thought choked him and sent him weak.

When he saw her again from the shelter of the pole trail he dared not, and so stood there prey to a novel sensation, that of being baffled in an intention. As he hesitated he saw that she was walking slowly in his direction. Perhaps a hundred paces separated the two. She took them deliberately. Her progression was a series of poses, the one which melted imperceptibly into the other without appreciable pause of transition.

In a moment she had reached the fringe of brush about the pole trail. They stood face to face.

She gave a little start of surprise, and her hand leaped to her breast, where it caught and stayed. Her child-like down-dropping mouth parted a little more, and the breath quickened through it. But her eyes, her wide, trusting, innocent eyes, sought his and rested.

He did not move. One on either side of the spike-marked old Norway log of the trail they stood, and for an appreciable interval the duel of their glances lasted—he masterful, passionate, exigent; she proud, cool, defensive in the aloofness of her beauty. Then at last his prevailed. A faint color rose from her neck, deepened and spread over her face and forehead. In a moment she dropped her eyes.

"Don't you think you stare a little rudely, Mr. Thorpe?" she asked.

The vision was over.

"How did you know my name?" he asked.

She planted both elbows on the Norway and framed her little face deliciously with her long pointed hands.

"If Mr. Harry Thorpe can ask that question," she replied, "he is not quite so impolite as I had thought him."

"How is that?" he inquired breathlessly.

"Don't you know who I am?" she asked in return.

"A goddess, a beautiful woman!" he answered ridiculously enough.

She looked straight at him. This time his gaze dropped.

"I am a friend of Elizabeth Carpenter, who is Wallace Carpenter's sister, who, I believe, is Mr. Harry Thorpe's partner."

She paused as though for comment. The young man opposite was occupied in many other more important directions.

"We wrote Mr. Harry Thorpe that we were about to descend on his district with wagons and tents and Indians and things, and asked him to come and see us."

The girl looked at him for a moment steadily, then smiled. The change of countenance brought Thorpe to himself.

"But I never received the letter. I'm so sorry," said he. "It must be at the mill. You see, I've been up in the woods for nearly a month."

"Then we'll have to forgive you."

"But I should think you would have done something for you at the mill!"

"Oh, we didn't come by way of your mill. We drove from Marquette."

"I see," cried Thorpe, enlightened. "But I'm sorry I didn't know. I'm sorry you didn't let me know. I suppose you thought I was still at the mill. How did you get along? Is Wallace with you?"

"No," she replied, dropping her hands and straightening her erect figure. "It's horrid. He was coming, and then some business came up, and he couldn't get away. We are having the loveliest time, though. I do adore the woods. Come," she cried impatiently, sweeping aside to leave a way clear. "You shall meet my friends."

Thorpe imagined she referred to the rest of the tenting party. He hesitated.

"I am hardly in fit condition," he objected.

She laughed, parting her red lips. "You are extremely picturesque just as you are," she said, with rather embarrassing directness. "I wouldn't have you any different for the world. But my friends don't mind. They are used to it." She laughed again.

Thorpe crossed the pole trail and for the first time found himself by her side. The warm summer odors were in the air; a dozen lively little birds sang in the brush along the trail; the sunlight danced and flickered through the openings.

Then suddenly they were among the pines, and the air was cool, the vista dim and the birds' songs inconceivably far away.

He said little, and that lamely, for he dreaded to say too much. To her playful sallies he had no reposte, and in consequence he felt more silent with another boding—that he was losing his cause outright for lack of a ready word.

And so the last spoken exchange between them meant nothing, but if each could have read the unsaid words that quivered on the other's heart Thorpe would have returned to the Fighting Forty more tranquilly, while she would probably not have returned to the camping party at all for a number of hours.

"I do not think you had better come with me," she said. "Make your call and be forgiven on your own account. I don't want to drag you in at my chariot wheels."

"All right. I'll come this afternoon," Thorpe had replied.

"I love her; I must have her. I must go—at once," his soul cried, "quick—now—before I kiss her!"

"How strong he is," she said to herself, "how brave looking, how honest! He is different from the other men. He is magnificent."

That afternoon Thorpe met the other members of the party, offered his apologies and explanations and was graciously forgiven. He found the person he had expected to find at the house of the woman of twenty-two or thereabout, her husband, a youth of three years older, clean shaven, light haired, quiet mannered; Miss Elizabeth Carpenter, who resembled her brother in the characteristics of good looks, vivacious disposition and curly hair; an attendant satellite of the masculine persuasion called Morton, and last of all the girl whom Thorpe had already so variously encountered and whom he now met as Miss Hilda Farrand. Besides these were Ginger, a squat negro built to fit the galley of a yacht, and three Indian guides. They inhabited tents, which made quite a little encampment.

Thorpe was received with enthusiasm. Wallace Carpenter's stories of his woods partner, while never doing more than justice to the truth, had been warm. One and all owned a lively curiosity to see what a real woodsman might be like. When he proved to be handsome and well-mannered as well as picturesque his reception was no longer in doubt.

THE PRELIMINARY WAS POSTPONED

Alleged Murderers Not to be Tried until Thursday.

Two Malicious Cutting Cases Were On the Police Court Docket Today.

OTHER POLICE COURT NOTES

Tom Brake and Lee Stanfield, the negroes charged with killing Charles Dunnegan, colored, Sunday on the steamer Dick Fowler, were arraigned before Special Judge D. A. Cross this morning and the case continued until July 22, in order to accommodate the defense, who wanted time to get witnesses here.

Will Smith, colored, was arraigned for malicious cutting on a warrant sworn out this morning. He is alleged to have on June 24, 1901, cut John Brown, colored. When arrested by Officer Thad Terrell, no warrant could be found. Brown and Officer Terrell went before Acting County Attorney J. S. Ross and had the warrant issued.

John Ewell, colored, had a fight on the wharfbank this morning with another negro named Robert Bright and cut the latter in the side with a knife. The men worked on the steamer City of Memphis which landed here about 3 o'clock this morning. They got to quarreling and later fought. Bright is not badly injured but on account of the absence of witnesses the case was continued until tomorrow. Ewell was arrested by Officers Cross and Hessian.

Henry Jackson, colored, was fined $5 and costs for sleeping in a box car. M. Marks was fined $3 and costs for using profane language towards Oscar Hite.

George Brown and Beoney Sanders, colored, were given thirty days in city prison for vagrancy.

Thomas McCreery, colored, was fined $5 and costs for striking his wife. It was proven in mitigation that she was throwing bottles and anything else handy at her husband.

Charles Clotter, white, was fined $5 and costs for swimming off the dry docks.

Charles Hall, white, was fined $5 and costs for fast driving.

— French, white, was fined $1 and costs for drunkenness.

ANOTHER LETTER

PROF. JOHN DEAN RECEIVES COPY OF GAME LAW OF ILLINOIS.

It seems from another letter received by Prof. John Dean from the game warden of Illinois that non-resident hunters are really required to pay the $15 license to hunt in Illinois. Paducah sportsmen are interested because they often hunt across the river, but do not hunt enough to justify the expenditure of $15. Prof. Dean today received a copy of the game laws, embodying provisions relative to the license. It is very strict, and even gives officers of the law a right to search suspects for game.

Local hunters are disappointed, but still have a gleam of hope, as the statements recently seen in the Illinois papers said that a part of this game law had been knocked out by the supreme court. This could have been done and the laws still appear in its original form in the copies of it printed for distribution, one of which was sent to Prof. Dean. It is therefore possible that the section about licenses was knocked out after the copy of the law sent here was printed.

Charles Hilliard, charged with stealing $18.75 from William Howell, the saloon keeper at Seventh and Trimble streets, was granted a continuance until tomorrow in court this morning.

Great damage was done to crops in Wisconsin by a wind and rain storm.

INAUGURAL PUBLIC SALE OF TOWN LOTS AND MANUFACTURING SITES

The Future Great Inland City of the Southwest,

Nortonville, at the Junction of the I. C. and L. & M. Railroads

Surrounded On All Sides by Important Cities and Towns, Namely:

Evansville, Ind.; Nashville, Tenn.; Paducah, Owensboro, Henderson, Hopkinsville, Princeton, Russellville, Central City, Morganfield, Hodgenville, Eddyville, Fulton, Providence, Madisonville, Elkton, Smith Grove and many others.

A POINT AT WHICH OVER 80 TRAINS PASS DAILY.

A Town Site Possessing More Attractive, Original Features Than Any Inland City in America

Had at Its Inception.

To OCCUR ON WEDNESDAY AND THURSDAY, JULY 20 AND 21, 1904.

Nortonville is the Center of the Great Mining Interests of Western Kentucky.

The Nortonville Coal Co., having recently become possessed of the town site and 2,000 acres surrounding it, and having expended large sums of money in sinking shafts and opening magnificent coal mines surrounding the site, which are producing wonderful results, employing over 300 artisans and miners, the families of which form a population of 1,000 people, have determined to offer to the public an opportunity to become original participants in the inauguration of what it believes is destined to be, and which, by reason of its location and natural advantages, must, at an early day, be a very important inland city.

SOME OF THE ADVANTAGES OF NORTONVILLE.

Nortonville is the center of a fine agricultural section and sufficiently distant from Hopkinsville, Paducah, Evansville, Ind., Nashville, Tenn., and twenty other surrounding towns and cities above mentioned, all within a radius of twenty to fifty miles, to make it a distributing point for them and the adjacent country. The town site is a beautiful level valley, widening out to undulating hills, rich in coal and offering every inducement for the investor and the homeseeker. The water supply is abundant, the climate and all other conditions are such as to justify the prophecy that with a little energy and enterprise on the part of its own people it will soon be one of the best inland towns in the State of Kentucky.

THE NORTONVILLE COAL CO.

has demonstrated its faith in the merits and future prospects of this property by expending a half-million of dollars in opening mines, building houses, improving the social and moral conditions and starting the various enterprises which are necessary for the well-being of the present population. With magnificent R. R. facilities and cheap fuel, the nucleus of a thriving town is already formed.

Inviting the co-operation of the world at large in their enterprise, the company will, on July 20 and 21, offer for sale lots and tracts in accordance with a map, which will be ready for distribution July 1. Cheap accommodation for all who attend the sale will be provided, and the company will give a GRAND BARBECUE on the first day of the sale (July 20), to which all will be made to secure reduced rates to parties attending the sale. The terms of the sale will be exceedingly liberal.

THE CARMEN

Regular Meeting Will be Held This Evening.

Central City Men Desire to Come Here and Join.

Tonight the Brotherhood of Railway Carmen will hold a regular meeting with three new members to initiate.

The brotherhood has dropped the sick benefit for one month and little complaint has been heard. The benefit carries with it provisions for $5 per week to the sick members, but the expense had been so great the funds set aside for this purpose were speedily eaten up.

There are several carmen at Central City who want to become members of the brotherhood but who cannot come here for initiation and tonight it will be voted to send Mr. Andy Laveau, chief carman, to that city to initiate the members.

NEGRO BURGLAR WAS IN EXPRESS ROOM

The Man on Duty Was Aroused by Him.

The Intruder Was Looking Through the Express Packages When He Was Discovered.

THE POLICE GAVE CHASE

Mr. Herman Rison, of the American Express Company, had an exciting encounter with a negro burglar last night at the Illinois Central depot, and considers himself lucky to escape without injury.

Rison is employed by the express company to stay at the depot during the night and guard the express staff which is shipped in and out on the trains. There are always many valuables in the express room, which is located at the north end of the depot adjoining the baggage room, and the watchman always has his pistol handy for emergency cases. Rison had his pistol on a box some little distance from his bed, and about 3:30 o'clock this morning was awakened by a noise and in the dim light which came in from the outside, saw a negro near his bed in the act of going through the express matter. Rison asked the intruder what he wanted and the negro replied that he "worked about the depot." Rison then arose hastily to secure his pistol and the negro ran.

An examination, Mr. Rison says, showed the intruder burst the doors open to gain entrance, possibly as a train passed and drowned the noise, the express men being unused to noise and sound sleepers. The depot police were summoned and gave chase to the negro who succeeded in outstripping the officers. Nothing was missed from the express matter and it is presumed the negro had just gained entrance and had not been in long enough to accomplish anything. This is the first instance on record where the express room has been so boldly entered.

A GOOD CONTRACT

PADUCAH ARCHITECT TO DRAW PLANS FOR OWENSBORO THEATER

Architect William Brainerd has the contract for making plans for a handsome new opera house at Owensboro, Ky., to be erected by Messrs. Pendley and Borch, owners of the present opera house building there.

It will be a similar plan to the "Kentucky" of this city, and will be about the same value.

THE DISPATCHERS

Are Getting Ready to Move to 11th and Broadway.

The Building Is Today Undergoing Repairs.

The work of fitting out the old freight depot, at Eleventh and Broadway for the local dispatching offices, was begun this morning and will probably be finished within ten days. A preliminary allowance of $200 has been made to fit up the office inside, but after the dispatchers are once installed, other improvements will be made, both inside and out. Only the office portion of the building is being repaired.

The plan for moving the master mechanic's office to this building has been done away with, the company deciding this fall to build a new office just north of the big water tank fronting the shops, and assign the present quarters to the company for a tin shop.

WRITE FOR OPINION

Paducah School Board Formally Notifies Lexington.

An Opinion From the Attorney General Is Expected Soon.

Prof. Frank B. May, secretary of the board of education, has written the school authorities at Lexington, Ky., pledging co-operation in securing a decision of the attorney general in regard to the effect the school book law recently passed in this state, will have on cities of the second class. He expects an answer at once.

"This school book law," he explained, "will work hardship on many this season and will change three-fourths of the books used in the Paducah schools if permitted to go into effect here. The Lexington school authorities feel over the matter the same as we do, and took definite steps to test the law first. We pledged co-operation in every way and instructed the Lexington board to go ahead and adopt any methods it desired to secure the opinion."

The action will necessitate the expenditure of but little money, as the opinion will cost nothing. The correspondence and possibly other small matters will be the only items of expense attached. The boards will secure the decision before the fall term of school, if possible.
